

<How many times were 'Animation Movies' rented out? >

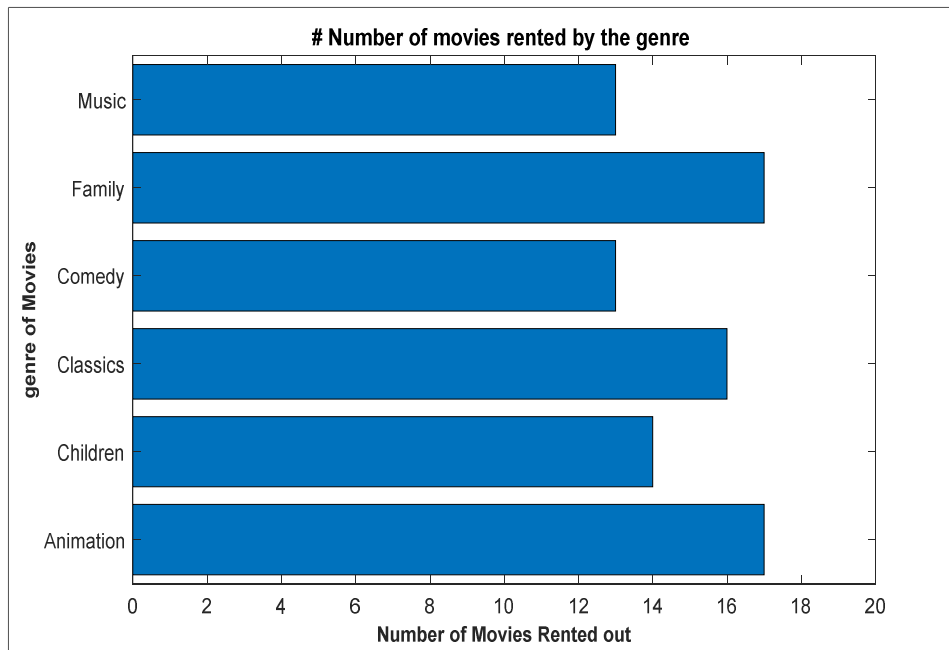

<Animation films were the most often rented, trailed by family films. The music genre was the least rented out of all the categories. >

<What is the the longest and the shortest rental period >

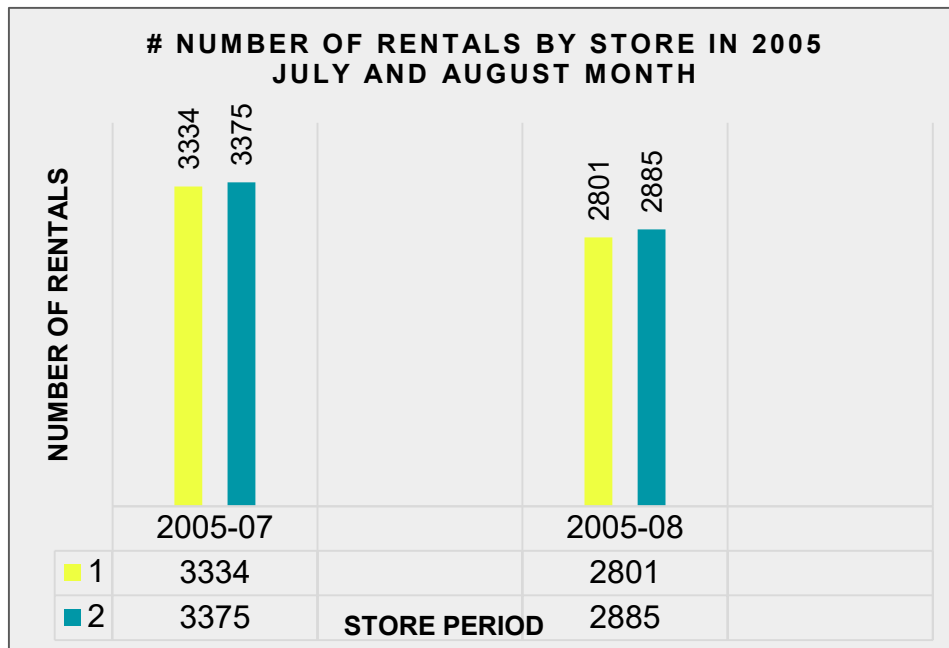

< The shortest rental period is three days, while the longest is seven days. The graph also shows that the same rental days can be classified as either first or second quartile. >

<Which type of film was most frequently rented in the fourth quartile of rental duration? >

<'Animation' and 'Family' movies were the most popular genres in the fourth quartile of longest leased out movies. >

<In July and August of 2005, how many rentals did each business process? >

< In terms of rents, both businesses performed similarly in July and August of 2005. >